

MAKE-UP FOR SESSION 11: RECONCILIATION

- There are three forms for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. For this make-up you will be asked to make a plan for the Form II Rite of Reconciliation with several penitents and individual confession and absolution.
- For this make-up project you will prepare part of a teen-friendly, Reconciliation service and you have five tasks.
 1. Choose a scripture passage that will focus your Reconciliation service.
 2. Select a piece of music that will be meaningful for the service and also speak a teen audience.
 3. Write a homily and reflection on the scriptures that will speak to a teen audience.
 4. Write an examination of conscience.
 5. Write an Act of Contrition.

Task 1- Select Scripture: You may select any part of the Bible that you see fit, however, I have provided a few popular passages. The rite suggests that God's voice is to be heard, calling his people back to conversion and ever closer conformity with Christ; the scripture should call to mind the mystery of our reconciliation through the death and resurrection of Christ and through the gift of the Holy Spirit; and it brings to bear on people's lives God's judgment of good and evil as a light for the examination of conscience.

Some popular readings:

- The parable of the Lost Sheep (Mathew 18:10-14)
- The parable of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11-32)
- Two men praying in the temple (Luke 18:9-14)
- How often should one forgive another? (Matthew 18:21-35)
- Zacchaeus the Tax Collector (Luke 19:1-10)
- At Crucifixion (Luke 23:39-42)
- "On these two commandments the whole law and the prophets depend..." (Matthew 22:34-40)
- Before bringing your gift to the altar (Matthew 5:23-26)

Task 2- Select a Song: When the faithful have assembled, they may sing a song. The song often sets the mood and prepares the penitents for the graces of the sacrament.

Please turn this in as an mp3 and include a copy of the lyrics.

Task 3- Write a Homily: The homily, taking as the homily's source the scriptural text, should lead the penitents to examine their conscience and to turn away from sin and towards God. It should remind the faithful that sin works against God, against the community, one's neighbors, and against the person who has sinned. Therefore, it would be good to recall:

- a. the infinite mercy of God; God is greater than all our sins,
- b. the need for inner repentance,
- c. the social dimension of grace and sin; grace and sin affect the whole body of Christ, when one is joyous we are all joyful; likewise when one is in sin the whole of us are less because of the sin,
- d. the duty of penance, the exercise of true charity toward God and neighbor.

Your homily should be about the length of a five paragraph essay or if you would like to say your homily it should be about five minutes long, you may record and attach as an mp3.

Task 4- Write an Examination of Conscience: This period of time is usually spent in making an examination of conscience and it calls us to arouse true sorrow for sins. Following this make-up outline are three samples of examination of consciences; one based on the Ten Commandments, one looking at the three great teachings of Jesus, and one for children, they will be a helpful tool.

Your examination of conscience should be at least one page long, and it should ask questions relevant to teens.

Task 5- Write an Act of Contrition: Many times I hear people say they would like to go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation but they forgot how to say THE Act of Contrition. There is no one and only one Act of Contrition, there are hundreds of them. Below I have included some samples. An Act of Contrition is a fourfold prayer:

- It calls upon God
- Admits to being sinful
- Asks for forgiveness
- Asks for support to avoid future sin

Your Act of Contrition should be at least four sentences long and be a prayer you would feel comfortable saying.

This make-up is due by March 26 to dponnet@holyfamily.org

Samples: Act of Contrition

Oh my God,
I am hearty sorry for having offended thee
And I detest all my sins because of thy just punishments
But most of all because it offended thee my God, who is all good and deserving of my love.
I firmly resolve with the help of your grace to do no wrong
And avoid the near occasion of sin.
Amen.

Oh my God,
I am sorry for my sins with all my heart.
In choosing to do wrong
And failing to do good,
I have sinned against you
whom I should love above all things.
I firmly intend, with your help,
to do penance,
to sin no more,
and to avoid whatever leads me to sin.
Our Savior Jesus Christ
suffered and died for us.
In His name, my God, have mercy. Amen.

I confess to almighty God, and to you,
my brothers and sisters, that I have sinned through my own fault
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done,
and in what I have failed to do;
and I ask blessed Mary, ever virgin,
all the angels and saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord, our God.
