

HOLY FAMILY MISSION TRIPS COVENANT FOR ADULTS AND TEENS GOING ON OUR MISSION TRIP 2018

I commit to deepen my faith and grow in faith as I serve and learn about others.

I COMMIT TO:

- Glorify God with my life
- Pray daily, in preparation for the mission trip
- Worship regularly with my mission family and my faith community
- Live in a community that believes we are all beloved by our God
- Respect, honor, grow and show mercy with those in our mission community
- Participate in our mission socials and mission fundraisers
- Use the tools offered on the Holy Family website to keep informed of the various mission projects, socials, and fundraisers
- Commit to a business plan for the upcoming mission trips (see the second page of this handout)
- Gather monthly with the group for Mass, dinner and fellowship
- Invite family and friends to be a Mission Supporter, by employing our webpage, video, and online giving
- Participate in the fundraising making up the necessary funds for this mission trip. If there is a deficient, I will make of the difference between the monies I contributed to the mission trip and fundraising goal
- Not to participate in illegal use of drugs, use of alcohol, promiscuity, bullying, nor, profanity at our socials, fundraisers, and on the mission trip, itself.
- (for the international mission) The understanding that the laws in other regions are different than here in the US. If I should be arrested for any reason during our mission trip, it will be my family's responsibility to handle legal issues as well, as transportation issues, and other maladies that may result of my illegal activity
- Share with the director my concerns and avoid gossiping

Business Plan

Mission trip fundraising efforts are used to cover costs for church members to go on a mission trip. With mission trip fundraising, donations raised will go towards travel costs, supplies, help offset some of the chaperon expenses, and funding missionary's needs while they are on their mission. All of the missionaries must be a part of our fundraising efforts, (even if the family plans to pay for the entire cost of the mission trip).

For the past two years we have fundraised for our mission trips here are some of the ways we made money and a few new ones.

- Continental Breakfasts (none scheduled, but as other groups drop out we'll fill in)
- Bowling event
 - Sell tickets,
 - Make food,
 - Come and have fun
- See's Candy Bar Sale March 1-15
 - Manage the sales
 - Each missionary sells 20 Easter themed candies
- Christmas Babysitting Dec 15
 - Make cookies,
 - Do publicity
 - Do the babysitting
 - Be a parent helper
 - Plan the event
- Angel Bins January
 - Pass out club cards after one Mass
 - Collect clothes and shoes after Mass.
 - Bag up the clothes
- Flamingo flocking beginning in January
 - Each local missionary will be given a two days each month to unflock and reflock
- Rummage for Missionaries January 27
 - Help by donating gently used items
 - Set up Eden for the rummage sale
 - Be a sales person
 - Be the lunch crew
 - Help cleanup
- Simple soup dinner Feb 24
 - Each missionary will sell 20 tickets to the dinner.
 - Each missionary will be a part of set up, clean up, or serving.
 - Each missionary will donate soup and something to the event, [soda, papergoods, desserts etc.]
- Make a powerful website for people to view and make donations.
 - Write the script,
 - Video tape missionaries
 - Get the word out to watch the video.
